

Sam Sheridan

Education

Harvard University, 1994-98, Cum Laude
Slade School, 1996-97, London UK
Seafarer's Harry Lundenburg School of Seamanship, 1992-93

Marine and Related Work Skills

- Certified Marine Firefighter, USCG Lifeboatman, Wilderness EMT, Helicopter Crewmember
 - Qualified watch-standing- Navigation, log keeping, ongoing care of vessel underway, helming
 - Re-fit work- fibreglassing, woodwork, equipment installation and wiring, painting and epoxy, rigging
 - Re-fit Supervisory work- supervision of contractors and negotiation
 - First Mate- responsibility for vessel, organizing inventory, care for SCUBA equipment and compressors, rig and deck hardware, dinghy & outboard maintenance
 - Basic construction- carpentry, roofing, bricklaying, heavy equipment operation, large crane direction, basic surveying, welding and cutting (arc and oxy-acetylene)
- Total Sea Mileage (USNS Able, Wireless, Pamela, Mustang, misc.) 30,000+

Work Experience

S.Y.SEMINOLE, Atlantic, Pacific
Various Deliveries, First Mate, 2007, 2008

S.Y. MUSTANG, Atlantic Ocean
Delivery Crew First Mate from Palma- Antigua, October-November 2003

GILA Inter-Agency Hotshot Crew, Reserve, New Mexico
Wildland Firefighter, April-September 2003

AHTANUM 20 Person Firecrew, Yakima, Washington
Wildland Firefighter, June-September 2002

RAYTHEON POLAR SERVICES, South Pole Station, Antarctica
Construction – October 2001- February 2002

S.Y. PAMELA, Indian Ocean
First Mate – May-September 2000

S.Y. WIRELESS, Caribbean, Pacific
First Mate – June 1998- October 1999

MATADOR CATTLE COMPANY, Dillon, MT
Cowhand, Farmhand May-August 1995

US DEP'T OF NAVY, MILITARY SEALIFT COMMAND, USNS ABLE, Norfolk, VA
Steward Assistant – December 1993-May 1994

Personal

Wilderness Emergency Medical Technician- Solo School, Stonehearth, NH
Traveled extensively through all seven continents
Proficient in Spanish, PADI Advanced Diver
Author, "A Fighter's Heart" and "The Fighter's Mind"